PLACES OF INTEREST

Canunda National Park: This unspoiled park between Lake Bonney and the Southern Ocean occupies an area in excess of 9,000 hectares. Marked tracks provide access for conventional and 4WD vehicles. Ref: N-1

Jubilee Park: This park near the centre of Millicent was a joint service club initiative to mark the State's 150th birthday in 1986. There are spacious gardens, picnic areas, toilets and BBQ facilities. Ref: M-20

Lake McIntyre: A variety of bird life is attracted to Lake McIntyre, which is a rehabilitated quarry fed by the water table. Efforts by schools, community groups and Wattle Range Council have beautified the lake's surrounds and provided picnic areas. Ref: B-12

Millicent Domain Playground: A modern and safe outdoor adventure space for the whole family to enjoy. Includes exciting play equipment, wheelchair access, Liberty swing, skate park and BBQ facilities. Ref: L-19

Millicent Library and Gallery: Located at the Civic Centre, the library is one of the best in SA, the place for free Internet Access and browsing. It houses Local History Collections and is a mine of information for the local and family historian. Ref: M-20

Millicent Swimming Lake: The man-made swimming lake is a mecca for those seeking relief on hot days. Operates over the summer months only. Ref: I-19

Millicent Visitor Information Centre: The first point of call for tourist information, local craft, produce, souvenirs and maps to cater for all visitors. Ref: P-22

National Trust Museum: This award-winning facility is housed in Millicent's first school. It features displays on the "Geltwood" shipwreck and its anchor, horse-drawn vehicles, steam locomotive, costumes, local history and aboriginal artifacts. Ref: P-22

South East Family History Group Resource Centre: An extensive range of local, national and international records available for the avid historian. Ref: P-22

Tantanoola Caves: An ancient marine cliff with awe-inspiring caves. Tours available every hour. Ph: 8734 4153.

Woakwine Range Windfarm Tourist Drive: Largest windfarm development in the Southern Hemisphere. Get up close as you drive along the Canunda Frontage Road to see the turbines turning majestically in the wind.
