3. PRINCIPLES

Council members in South Australia have an obligation to serve the best interests of the people within the community they represent and to discharge their duties conscientiously, to the best of their ability, and for public, not private, benefit at all times.

To serve the community well, Council members must work together constructively as a Council. This will foster community confidence and trust in the Council and local government more generally.

Council members will make every effort to ensure they have current knowledge of both statutory requirements and the required standards of practice relevant to their position. Wattle

8. When engaging and communicating with Council employees, we will do so in accordance with the requirements of the Chief Executive Officer and relevant legislation, recognising the separation of powers between Council members and the Chief Executive Officer and the importance of working together to achieve positive outcomes for the community.
