

You may also be lucky enough to see long-necked tortoises, swamp rats, echidnas, possums, owls, and several different types of dragonfly, as well as snakes.

We have 3 or 4 different types of frogs which are easily heard but much more difficult to spot.

If you happen to spot a bird that is not on our list, we would appreciate you letting the staff at the Tourist Information Centre know.

Facilities at the lake

Toilets
Picnic Tables
Free covered gas BBQs
Walking Trail
Viewing Platforms
Boardwalk & Bridge
Bird Hides
Wheelchair Friendly

Lake McIntyre Management Board
PO Box 27
Millicent SA 5280

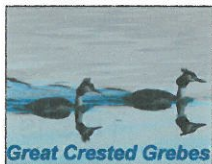

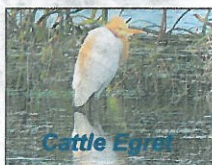

Lake McIntyre

Common Bird List

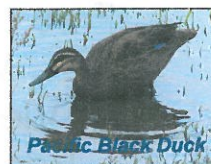

This is not a comprehensive bird list but rather a list of birds you are likely to spot depending on the season and the water levels

Australasian Grebe
Australasian Shoveler
Australian Magpie
Australian Raven
Australian Shelduck
Australian Spotted Crake
Australian White Ibis
Black Swan
Black-fronted Dotterel
Black-winged Stilt
Black-tailed Native-hen
Black-winged Grey Currawong
Brown Goshawk
Brown Thornbill
Cattle Egret
Chestnut Teal
Clamorous Reed Warbler
Crested Pigeon
Dusky Moorhen
Eastern Rosella
Eastern Yellow Robin
Eurasian Coot
Great Crested Grebe
Great Egret
Grey Fantail
Grey Shrike-thrush
Grey Teal
Hardhead
Latham's Snipe
Little Black Cormorant
Little Eagle

Little Grassbird
Little Pied Cormorant
Little Wattlebird
Magpie Lark
Masked Lapwing
Mistletoebird
Musk Duck
Musk Lorikeet
Nankeen Night Heron
New Holland Honeyeater
Pacific Black Duck
Purple Swampphen
Rainbow Lorikeet
Red-browed Finch
Red-rumped Parrot
Red Wattlebird
Royal Spoonbill
Rufous Whistler
Silver Gull
Silvereye
Singing Honeyeater
Spiny-cheeked Honeyeater
Straw-necked Ibis
Striated Thornbill
Superb Fairy-wren
Welcome Swallow
White-browed Scrubwren
White-faced Heron
Willy Wagtail
Yellow-billed Spoonbill
Yellow-rumped Thornbill

Less Frequent Visitors

Australian Pelican
Baillon's Crake
Brown Falcon
Buff Banded Rail
Darter
Eastern Spinebill
Golden Whistler
Hoary-headed Grebe
Horsfield's Bronze-cuckoo
Marsh Sandpiper
Pink-eared Duck
Red-kneed Dotterel
Sacred Kingfisher
Swamp Harrier
Wedge-tailed Eagle
Whiskered Tern
White-necked Heron
Wood Duck
Yellow-tailed Black-cockatoo

