This year the Gallery celebrates 25 years and Barbara Wallace actively lobbied to have the Gallery built adjacent to the Library. Barbara a talented craftsperson herself, is remembered not only for her inspiring work, but for her tireless encouragement to all involved in the arts and in particular for her role in organising craft exhibitions and in encouraging artists/craft persons to participate and expand their skills both locally and within the wider community.

At the entrance to the Millicent Gallery is a fine collection of ceramics which depicts the development and innovation of
